

MANNY RAMIREZ PALS UP WITH JOHN CALICCHIO

Ring, Ring, Ring; I pick up the phone and listen to the caller on the other end saying in a loud drawn-out tone... "Hey Johnny Baby!"

It's Manny Ramirez of the LA Dodgers on the line. He's happy and excited every time he calls over to Euromasters Classic Cars. He was asking for my assistance in finding him a few special cars for himself and his family. After many calls back and forth, I narrowed down the search and located a few choice vehicles that met Manny's specific requirements.

It's now the end of August 2010. The phone rings... "Hey Johnny Baby! I'm excited you found me some cars. I'm in LA; let's go have dinner". The plan was to meet that next Sunday evening but a last minute call came from Manny telling me that he had just been traded to the Chicago White Sox and had to board a plane that same evening. Consumed with transferring to Chicago and all the chaos involved, they were unable to connect.

The one thing I hold dear from this encounter is that Manny is truly a genuine, happy and easy going guy and that we really enjoyed each others conversations. You can be at any level in life and still share the same common bonds and goals, which are to enjoy life to the fullest and do your best to make other people happy!
